

G IT Desk is one of the best outsourcing company in Bangladesh, uses various tools and software to provide the quality of services. With those professional software G IT desk use some software to maintain their accounting activities and employees efficiencies.

There are three main software that are used by G IT desk are

1. Combined of Google Spreadsheet and MS Excel to record the employee's activity.
2. Up Work software to track the time and
3. Wave, to record the accounting transaction

Through this research we will show you how G IT desk use these software. All these software are managed by the Accounting and Finance department except Up Work.

Through these research we will find out every details and outcome of these software.

---

MISSION

Our mission is to remain a successful entrepreneurial, diversified, and socially responsible growth company that provides high-quality value-added services for our clients.

---

VISION

Partnering your Success and Partners in your Success" – that is our vision. G IT Desk believe that the success can only be long lasting when the client succeeds. And thus G IT Desk work every day to be the most reliable partners in the industry that they could make. G IT Desk employ the best so that they could bring the best for you

---

QUALITY APPROACH

G IT Desk believes that the out sourcing industry is built with trust and quality of service. G IT desk always focus on their quality of service. To maintain the quality of service and efficiency of work G IT offer pre training activities for new employees with lower IT knowledge.

<https://peaksupport.io/about/>

<https://www.openaccessbpo.com/services/back-office/>

<https://www.techspeed.com/about-techspeed.php>

<https://www.callboxinc.com/>